Biography

I was born in 1978 in the Andırın district of Kahramanmaraş. I read primary school 7th March primary school. I have read Anatolian high school exam and have read 7 years together with English preparation in Kadirli Anatolian High School. In 1997 I won the Faculty of Medicine of Gaziantep University. I graduated in 2003 after 6 years of medical education. I was assigned to the State Hospital of Andırın as a general practitioner. I did my military service in the Pertek district of Tunceli in 2006. I continued to work in the state hospital again until the year 2008. I started the Department of Anesthesiology and Reanimation of Inonu University Faculty of Medicine by winning the medical specialty examination. After about 5 years of specialist training, I was appointed as an anesthesiologist in 2013 to the Adilcevaz district of Bitlis. After 2 years of compulsory service, I wanted to be appointed to Konya Ereğli State Hospital. After working for 6 months, I was appointed as an assistant professor to Istanbul New Century University Faculty of Medicine Gaziosmanpaşa Hastanes. After working for about 1 year, I resigned and started to practice as a specialist in the practice hospital of Bezmialem Foundation University. I am still continuing my assignment there.
